

1.0 Individual report.

This individual report outlines your learning from the course. You can explain some of the theoretical and practical learning from the class. You might also describe your thoughts and feelings about this semester's class.

This is an opportunity to show your individual understanding of the class and pick up some easy grade points!

1.1 Due date

This assignment is due on the 24th June.

Please upload it to my website. You should name your file as: [your_name].pdf

1.2 Length and format

- Citation is not necessary.
- Your report should be long enough to present your thoughts on the topic.
- You should have a cover page (e.g., to include: the title, your name, ID number, date).

Please feel free to ask questions.

Dr. James Stanworth