For your next presentation:

What will be your positive signal?

Good afternoon, everyone. I'm glad to have the opportunity to introduce QBurger, the best breakfast restaurant in Taiwan.

We are committed to serving food quickly while maintaining high quality, providing customers with a nutritious and energizing breakfast to fuel their day.

What will be your topic sentence?

The topic of this presentation will introduce everyone to how QBurger successfully achieved digital transformation in the traditional breakfast industry, strengthening its position in a highly competitive market.
